

Orchestra Academy for all those interested in playing in an orchestra

For the first time for decades the International Summer Academy is going to try and form its own orchestra from the participants in the master-classes.

From 31 July until 26 August a four-week Orchestra Academy will be offered.

The orchestra will be made up of about 25 to 28 members and after days of intensive rehearsals (first week) will take on the following duties:

- For the master-class in conducting: work with participants from the conducting class directed by Bruno Weil and the final concert
- Opera project Orlando paladino by Joseph Haydn (third and fourth week) with stage-orchestral rehearsals and three performances on 23, 24 and 26 August 2017

Simultaneously to this all orchestral members are offered the chance in the period from 31 July to 12 August (horn from 14 to 26 August) to take part actively in a master-class of their choice at the reduced rate of EUR 360.
