

Institute for Diversity and Gender Studies

The Institute for Diversity and Gender Studies of the Mozarteum University Salzburg is responsible for announcing and granting prizes for completed academic papers and projects, as well as, promoting artistic/scientific project proposals in the areas of feminist research, gender and diversity studies. This offer aims to make visible research and artistic examination of feminist, gender and diversity questions and – above all – should be understood as an invitation for young artists and scientists to engage themselves with these topics.

GenDivers-Prize

for completed scholarly papers and projects in the areas of feminist research, gender and diversity studies

The Institute for Diversity and Gender Studies at the Mozarteum University Salzburg grants prizes for outstanding final scholarly papers and projects that are concerned with feminist, gender and/or diversity issues in an innovative way.

Prizes will be awarded to scientific bachelor, diploma, master and doctoral theses, specifically discussing the following perspectives:

- the construction of gender, gender identities, gender roles or gender relations in the arts, the sciences and society
- feminist and/or women's research
- concepts of diversity (concerning sexual orientation, ethnic affiliation, religion, age, special needs, etc.).

The GenDivers-Prize is open to students of all fields of study and is allotted as follows:

bachelor thesis: 300 €

diploma- or master thesis: 500 €

doctoral thesis: 800 €
