

Institut für Gleichstellung und Gender Studies

The Institute for Diversity and Gender Studies of the Mozarteum University Salzburg is responsible for announcing and granting prizes for completed academic papers and projects, as well as, promoting artistic/scientific project proposals in the areas of feminist research, gender & queer studies or diversity studies. This offer aims to make visible research and artistic examination of feminist, gender, queer and diversity questions and – above all – should be understood as an invitation for young artists and scientists to engage themselves with these topics.

Promotion of Artistic/Scientific Projects

in the areas of feminist research, gender & queer studies or diversity studies

The Institute for Diversity and Gender Studies supports project proposals that deal with questions concerning feminism, gender, queerness and/or diversity in an innovative way.

Such proposals/projects could include

- active or passive participation in a conference, workshop or course
- artistic presentations and contributions at the Mozarteum Salzburg University: concerts, scenic presentation/performance, exhibition or installations, etc.
- thematic studies: research in archives or libraries, empirical investigations, etc.

Grants of up to 500 € available to students of all fields of study.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Current enrolment and/or current employment at the Mozarteum University Salzburg.
- proposals/projects in connection to a bachelor-, master- or diploma thesis cannot be supported (proposals/projects related to a doctoral thesis – completion of the Rigorosum B obligatory – can be funded in justified cases;).
- Documentary evidence, receipts and a short report of the successful implementation of the proposal/project must be submitted to the Institute for Diversity and Gender Studies within one month after the proposal/project has been completed.

APPLICATION DOCUMENTS

- Completed form (enclosed).
- Curriculum vitae (in tabular form).
- Detailed description of the proposal/project (700–1.500 words) that clearly states
  - the theme relevant to the fields of feminism, gender & queer or diversity studies
  - aims of the proposal/project
  - schedule
  - estimated costs.
- Letter of recommendation on behalf of the respective tutor or teacher, etc. (max. one A4-page).

All application papers (in German or English) must be sent via e-mail to iris.mangeng@moz.ac.at. Applications are accepted on a running basis throughout the year. In the case of a grant, applicants will be informed in written form.
